

Monticello:

Entrance into the campground property constitutes permission for the management of Yogi Bear's Jellystone Park Monticello, to photograph the visitor while on the premises and to use any resulting pictures for any lawful purpose without any compensation to the visitor. The guest assumes all risks and danger incidental to the activity of camping in a rustic outdoors environment, including specifically (but not exclusively), the danger of being injured by insects or other animals, of being injured while participating in recreational activities - such as hiking, swimming, boating, and jumping pillow - at Jellystone Park Monticello, or of acts of mother nature, or COVID19 related illness and agrees that the said camping resort and it's owners, agents, and employees are not liable for injuries or property damage resulting from such causes. I understand that there is no life guard on duty and the facility is a swim at your own risk at the beach, pool and river. I also understand that children under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult at these locations.
