Summer 2018 is almost here! Before we take out our duffel bags and pack for the summer, let us take a moment to look back at what made 2017 so great and bring that energy with us this year.

These are comments from the 2017 End of Summer Camper Feedback.

CAMP LINCOLN

The Bog.
Everyone is so nice.
You bond with everyone in your cabin.
I learned how to windsurf.
How accepting the camp community is.
How it challenged and pushed me out of my comfort zone.
Color Wars Part I and Part II.
The variety of activities.
I get to see my friends again.
...the positive attitudes.
Living on the lake.
The food is delicious.
The freedom!
How open-minded everyone was.

CAMP LAKE HUBERT

How truthful everyone is.
Dance Parties!
How nice the counselors are.
Meeting new people.
Trying new activities.
Sailing with my friends.
...we make new best friends.
...getting to know amazing women.
I liked the diversity.
The sea kayaking trip was very memorable.
... you could be yourself no matter what.
Being the fourth generation of my family to come here.
Being in the Booster Club.
Getting two bullseyes in a row in archery.

EVERYTHING!

SUMMER 2018 RALLY DAY DANCE THEMES

WHAT IS THE RALLY DAY DANCE?

During each of the four week sessions, a dinner and dance is scheduled for current (school year 2017-2018) 7th through 9th grade boys and girls. These campers get to come together for a themed dance while the Camp Lincoln Leadership Training (LT) Level 1 Participants DJ the night away.

1st Session – Wednesday, June 27th Hollywood on Hubert

Get ready for a formal affair on the shores of Hubert as we dance the night away while celebrating a night at the Oscars. The goal is to join Hollywood's A-List by strutting your stuff down the red carpet and smiling to the paparazzi all while joining the movie industry's showstoppers and jaw droppers. Dress to impress and dance to the best sounds of the day.

Second Session - Thursday, July 26th Let's Rock at the Camp Lincoln Hop!

It is once again time to make the scene and go ape as Rally Day goes back to the 50s. Greasers and paper shakers are definitely welcome as we "Rock Around the Clock" to the sounds of Elvis and Jerry Lee Lewis in our poodle skirts, letterman sweaters, peepers, beehives and flattops. Word from the bird!

Booster Item!

PRO TIP:
Your Booster will only count for someone who is new to camp. Siblings and new legacy campers are not included.

Booster Form

HOW TO JOIN THE BOOSTER CLUB

Once you submit a Booster Club Form you will become a member.

All members will be invited to the exclusive Booster Club Party during camp, even if your friend does not come to camp.

If your friend DOES come, then you will get a prize. Work your way up the level prizes, only two levels at a time.

Level 1: Engraved Mini-Canoe Paddle

Level 2: Booster Club Blanket

Level 3: Embroidered Fleece Jacket

Level 4: NEW Camp Patagonia Backpack

Level 5: A Brand New Mountain Bike

ARE YOU READY TO LEVEL UP? CHECK OUT OUR NEXT CHALLENGE!

BRONZE

How to Inspire Your Child to Be More Courageous, Curious, and Resilient

By Daniel J. Siegel, M.D.
and Tina Payne Bryson, Ph.D.

"There is so much I want for my kids: happiness, emotional strength, academic success, social skills, a strong sense of self and more. It is hard to know where to even start. What characteristics are most important to focus on to help them live happy, meaningful lives?"

As doctors, we get some version of this question everywhere we go. Parents want to help their kids become people who can handle themselves well and make good decisions, even when life is challenging. They want them to care for others, but also know how to stand up for themselves. They want them to be independent and also enjoy mutually rewarding relationships. They want them to avoid melting down when things do not go their way.

Whew! That is quite a list, and it can put a lot of pressure on us as parents. So, where should we focus our attention?

Our book, "The Yes Brain", is our attempt to offer a response to that question. The essential idea is that parents can help children develop a "Yes Brain," which produces four key characteristics:

- Balance: the ability to manage emotions and behavior, so kids are less likely to flip their lids and lose control;
- Resilience: the ability to bounce back when life's inevitable problems and struggles arise;
- Insight: the ability to look within and understand themselves, then use what they learn to make good decisions and be more in control of their lives;
- Empathy: the ability to understand the perspective of another, then care enough to take action to make things better when appropriate.

In "The Yes Brain," we discuss practical ways you can nurture these qualities in your children and teach them these important life skills. You really can help your kids become more emotionally balanced, more resilient in the face of struggles, more insightful when it comes to understanding themselves, and more empathic and caring toward others.

This science-inspired approach is about helping kids say "yes" to the world. It is about encouraging them to open their minds to new challenges, to new opportunities, to who they already are and all they can become.

If you have ever heard Dan speak, you may have participated in an exercise where he asks his audience to close their eyes and pay attention to their bodily and emotional responses when he repeats a particular word. He begins by somewhat harshly saying "no" over and over again. He repeats it seven times, then switches to "yes," which he says much more gently, again and again. He then asks the audience members to open their eyes and describe what they experienced.

They report that the "no" portion of the exercise left them feeling shut down, upset, tense and defensive, whereas when Dan repeated the affirming "yes," they felt open, calm, relaxed and lighter. The muscles of their face and vocal cords relaxed, their breathing and heart rate normalized, and they became more open, as opposed to restricted or insecure or oppositional. Feel free to close your eyes now and try the exercise for yourself. Maybe enlist the help of a relative or friend. Notice what goes on in your body as you repeatedly hear the word "no" and then "yes."

These two different responses—the "yes" response and the "no" response—give you an idea of what we mean when we talk about a "Yes Brain," as well as its opposite, a "No Brain". If you expand that and think about it as an overall outlook on life, a "No Brain" leaves you feeling reactive when you interact with people, which makes it nearly impossible to listen, make good decisions or connect with and care for another person. A focus on survival and self-defense kicks into gear, leaving you feeling guarded and shut down when it comes to interacting with the world and learning new lessons. Your nervous system initiates its reactive fight-flight-freeze-or-faint response: fight means lashing out, flight means escaping, freeze means temporarily immobilizing yourself, and faint means collapsing and feeling utterly helpless. Any of these four reactive responses to threat can become triggered, preventing you from being open, connecting to others and offering flexible responses. That is the reactive "No Brain" state.

The "Yes Brain," in contrast, emerges from different circuits in the brain that become activated and lead to receptivity rather than reactivity. Scientists use the term "social engagement system" to refer to the set of neural circuits that help us connect openly with others—and even our own inner experience. As a result of receptivity and an active social engagement system, we feel much more capable of addressing challenges in a strong, clear and flexible way. In this "Yes Brain" state, we open ourselves to a sense of equanimity and harmony, allowing us to absorb, assimilate and learn from new information.

"The Yes Brain: How to Cultivate Courage, Curiosity, and Resilience in Your Child," by Daniel J. Siegel, M.D., and Tina Payne Bryson, Ph.D., is available now.

HERE ARE SOME QUICK TIPS FOR BUILDING A "YES BRAIN"

Balance:

- Maximize the amount of sleep your child is getting.
- Serve a healthy "mind platter" by balancing the family schedule.

Resilience:

- Instead of extinguishing problematic behavior, listen to the message then build skills to solve the problem.
- Shower your kids with the "Four S's"—Help them feel Safe, Seen, Soothed, and Secure.
- Teach mindsight skills—Show kids how to shift their perspectives so they are not victims to their emotions and circumstances.

Insight:

- Reframe pain—Ask kids, "Which struggle do you prefer?"
- Avoid the "Red Volcano Eruption"—Teach kids to pause before "erupting".

Empathy:

- Establish a language of empathy—Provide a vocabulary that communicates care.
- Expand the "Circle of Concern"—Increase your child's awareness of people outside their most intimate connections.

Dear First-Time Parents

Becoming a first-time camp parent is a big step. You have done your research, you have picked a camp and now you wait until the big arrival day. You might find that questions are constantly coming to mind or that you hope you packed all the right supplies. Here is the catch - it is going to be just fine. It is actually going to be more than fine. Your child is getting ready to go to summer camp and embark on an adventure that will shape their lives for an amazing future. Even after this pep-talk, you might need just an extra push to get you ready for the summer. That is why we have asked some of our first-time camp parents from 2017 to offer some advice.

Laura Smith; Mother of Alec Smith
INTRO 1 AT CAMP LINCOLN
Saint Paul, Minnesota

My son heard about camp from other boys at his school and he approached me about attending. I had already heard of Camp Lincoln and was perfectly happy to let him give it a try. I was surprised he wanted to attend alone!

I happened to be in the area, so I dropped by the camp in May, before the first arrival day. Although it was the end of the day, the staff answered my questions and offered me an informational video to show my son. I felt more at ease having set foot in the office and on campgrounds. When we arrived to check my son in on arrival day, I was immediately impressed by the attention we got from the staff. In the parking lot, there were multiple staff standing around waiting to be of assistance, and their cheery greetings were genuine and reassuring. After his all too brief time at camp, I was pleased to see my son being more optimistic, friendly, open-minded, game to try things, and responsible for himself.

My friend advised us to send along a camping foam mat to help if the bed was uncomfortable. That was very handy, and I would suggest that to any first-time camp parent. I would also advise sending some pictures for your child to hang around their bed. We attached ours with painter's tape, so they left no mark.

Alec loved his time at camp and left wanting to try more activities. He really wanted to try overnight camping. Luckily, as a two-weeker, he can try more activities and go overnight camping with his cabin this coming summer.

Nicolas Jourdain; Father of Philou Jourdain
2W2 AT CAMP LAKE HUBERT
Paris, France

There are many reasons why we sent our daughter to camp. A few of those reasons include: learning to live in community with other children under the responsibility of adults, developing maturity and building strong friendships, living and playing in a breathtaking environment, as well as improving her English.

Camp sent us letters throughout the session about how our child was succeeding in her skill development and how she was integrating into camp life. It was awesome to know that our child was living exceptional moments that will remain etched in her memory.

My advice to a first-time parent would be to have confidence in the whole staff. They have great experience creating an unforgettable summer for your camper. We love knowing our child is living in a community and making friends in an exceptional place and having an incredible adventure.

Are you ready to have an amazing adventure this summer? We are going to have an awesome time! Some of our 2017 First-Time Campers want to make sure of that, so they have some insider tips to help you hit the ground running.

DEAR FIRST-TIME CAMP LINCOLN

JOE KELLY - 4W2

Wilmette, Illinois

I was so excited that it was finally my turn to go to Camp Lincoln. I have four older brothers and all but one of them went to Camp Lincoln. I do not remember dropping my brother Christo off at Camp Lincoln in 2011. My mom likes to tell the story of how I disappeared for a bit and they later found me playing games with some older kids. I did not want to leave!

Finally, it was my turn in 2017. I signed up for riflery and archery right away. I also tried horseback riding and I loved it. We do not have horses at home, so it was fun trying something new. I loved it so much that I signed up for saddle crew. We woke up at 5:00 a.m. to take care of the horses and the stables. I earned a bunch of awards for riding and want to keep trying this coming summer.

Camp is awesome. The counselors are great and so are the kids. There are tons of activities, so you never get bored. I was happy to be back at home and see my mom and dad, but I really miss camp. I cannot wait to go back this summer.

JAMIE NELSON - 2W3

Las Vegas, Nevada

My first summer was interesting, fun and a little crazy! A very important time at camp is the first day before dinner. This is where you can have fun and bond with some of your cabin mates. These friendships will be important throughout the session. Camp Lincoln is unique, with kids from different countries, which brings diversity to Camp Lincoln. Hanging around with the kids and counselors is fun.

JAMESON SCHNEIDER - INTRO2

East Grand Rapids, Michigan

Camp was really fun and exciting. I cannot wait to go back this summer! What I love about camp is that you can sit back, relax, listen to your counselors, and have a great time! You are so busy having fun, you do not have much time to miss home. Not to mention, I loved the activities! Riflery and pottery were my favorite.

TIME CAMPERS

CAMP LAKE HUBERT

WINNIE ORTH – 2W3

Winnetka, Illinois

My first summer at Camp Lake Hubert was the best summer of my life. It was filled with many fun activities. Some of the outstanding activities that I participated in were paddleboarding, waterskiing, windsurfing, decoupage, and archery.

Some advice that I would share with first-time campers is to go to sleep early and get enough sleep for all the exciting activities. I would tell campers to put loads of bug spray on so that they are protected from the bugs. You want to enjoy every moment. Do not waste time being homesick because you only have two great weeks there!

My favorite part was meeting friends from all around the world. I met someone from Russia! These friends make you feel welcome and they turn into family. I am lucky that I had the opportunity to spend my summer at Camp Lake Hubert. I loved it so much that this year I am going for a month. I cannot wait for summer!

HAILEY FEUCHT – INTRO2

Rosemount, Minnesota

My first summer at camp was so much fun! There was always something to do. First-time campers should try a lot of activities. I tried horseback riding and found that I loved it.

ELLIE LUCAS – 2W4

Denver, Colorado

My first summer of camp was really fun. I liked having more independence at camp, like making my bed every morning and tidying my chalet (sleeping room). It taught me to stay on task with a schedule, like having a certain amount of time to get ready before setting tables in the dining hall. If you wanted to do fun activities like polar bear swim or saddle crew (barn work), you had to learn how to wake up early. I want first-time campers to know that being away from home could be scary, but it is not as scary as it seems.

The counselors are always there to help you. I always felt included with my cabin mates and made some nice friends. My favorite part of camp that I hope first-time campers will love too is swan jumping (a two-story pontoon boat). It was so cool being out in the middle of Lake Hubert for the first time. It was fun watching other people jump off the top. While I did not jump off the top this past summer, I plan to next summer!

SPECIAL DAY

LINCOLNOPOLY

Have you ever wanted to own property on Lake Hubert? How about Camp Lincoln Waterfront? Or maybe the Camp Lincoln Climbing Wall or archery range? Well, now you can. That is right; Monopoly is coming to Lincoln this summer. Our new special day will feature a different kind of competition focused on strategy, decision making, business acumen, and a little bit of luck. Who will accumulate the most valuable Camp Lincoln Real Estate Empire? Can anyone bankrupt Old Man Ruggs and force him to move into Apache Cabin for the rest of the summer? There is only one way to find out!

2W1, 3W1, 4W1
2W3, 4W2

COLOR WARS PART ONE

The tradition continues! We plan to build on the successes of last summer by adding a few more creative twists to make Color Wars Part One 2018 even better than those in the past. This day promises to foster the utmost in energy, enthusiasm and team pride in our campers and staff. All will heed the call of their Color Wars Team morning, noon and night. Current 9th Grade Campers, please do not forget that this is your year to come up with an original and creatively choreographed song and dance routine complete with lyrics for Songfest 2018. May the best team win!

2W1, 3W1, 4W1 – June 25th
2W3, 4W2 – July 24th

I.I.M.P.M.T.

Collect. Piece together. Decipher. Solve code. Depart. Lincolnites, please be prepared for a new and exciting twist on the days of old...The Great Escape, The Extreme Dream and To Mr. Ruggles's Radical Rendezvous...Adieu! Pack your bags fellas as it is time for us to travel to some out of this world locations.

2W2, 3W1, 4W1 – July 2nd
2W4, 4W2 – July 31st

COLOR WARS PART TWO

This age-old camp tradition where the RED TEAM competes against the BLUE TEAM is one of the most anticipated days of each session. In 2017, the BLUE TEAM was victorious during both sessions. Will the RED TEAM bring the heat and become the winners this summer? Only time will tell. One thing is for certain...Summer 2018's installment of Color Wars Part Two will only be better as we add new campers, new events, more fun, and crown a new champion. Get ready to help lead your team to victory and to add to the legacy that is Color Wars Part Two.

2W2, 3W1, 4W1 – July 9th
2W4, 4W2 – August 7th

SPECIAL DAYS - CAMP LAKE HUBERT

GOT GAME?

It is game day, folks. Time to get in your position and get your head in the game. Today is the day to hit one out of the park, so get on your tennis shoes and suit up with your cabin mates. You have one shot, so "Just Do It."

2W1, 4W1 - June 25th
2W3, 4W2 - July 27th

KEEP CALM AND GET YOUR GROOVE ON

Breathe in and breathe out. It is important to keep your zen, so you can bust some moves when it really counts. Whether you are doing a sun salutation or contracting boogie fever, wear what suits your mood. So, channel your yin and yang and let us groove on through the day.

2W1, 3W1, 4W1 - June 25th
2W3, 4W2 - July 24th

AROUND THE WORLD IN A DAY

As they say in the song, "It's a small, small world," so we might as well see it all! Travel the world with your camp friends and do it in a day. See the sights, hear the music, taste the delicacies. Bring your comfy tourist clothes because we have got a lot of ground to cover and things to do!

2W2, 3W1, 4W1 - July 2nd
2W4, 4W2 - July 31st

COLOR WARS

A camp classic and one for the ages. Campers will be divided into their team color - White and Green. First-time campers will get their color before the day begins. Show your team spirit and get ready to represent in the all-camp relay race. Campers will be led by their color captains as they compete to become the winning team.

2W2, 3W1, 4W1 - July 8th
2W4, 4W2 - August 6th

Core Values

Camp Lincoln and Camp Lake Hubert are committed to character building through five key core values... values that have been part of our tradition since 1909. These core values are an important part of everything we do, and are central to intentional camping. You can see our values in action, as our campers:

Build a strong community through the give-and-take experiences of living together;

Strive for excellence through challenges and achievements in activities and programs;

Have a lot of fun in a setting that creates joy and laughter with each new day;

CAMP LAKE HUBERT

Enhance and gain a sense of personal growth and development that comes with new-found independence and developed through the encouragement of caring young adults;

Establish many lasting quality relationships that are made as the cabins work and play together.

3 THINGS YOU CAN DO WITH Bug Juice

Oh, bug juice. The taste of sunny summer days and cabin cookouts. Just a glass of bug juice and you can hear the birds chirping, smell the burgers cooking, and feel the Lake Hubert Breeze. Here is the thing.... you do not have to wait until summer. You can have your bug juice right now.... or something like it – Kool-Aid. Bug juice may taste better, but Kool-Aid can tie you over until the summer. So, while you sip your glass of “bug juice” and think of camp, try out these fun activities to shake up your summer beverage of choice.

Buggin' Ice Cubes

This is an effortless way to make any drink more playful. All you must do is take an ice cube tray and fill it with whatever bug juice flavor is your favorite. Put your ice cube tray in the freezer overnight. The next day you will have color ice cubes for a drink of your choice. A lemon-lime soda makes for a perfect combination.

Bug Juice Taffy

Please ask help from an adult when using a stove.

Ingredients:

- 2 cups of sugar
- 3 tablespoons of cornstarch
- 1 cup light corn syrup
- 1 1/3 cup water
- 2 tablespoons of butter
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 small packet of bug juice (or Kool-Aid)
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

- Butter a large cookie sheet and set to the side.
- In a medium saucepan, combine sugar and cornstarch. Add corn syrup, water, butter, and salt. Mix well before heating.
- Bring mixture to boil on medium-high heat, stirring occasionally, until it reaches 250 degrees Fahrenheit on a candy thermometer (hard ball stage).
- Remove from heat, and immediately stir in the vanilla and the bug juice powder.
- Quickly pour onto prepared cookie sheets.
- Let it stand a few minutes until it is cool enough to handle with your hands.
- Grab a few helpers to pull the taffy with buttered hands until the taffy lightens its color and becomes firmer. This might take a few minutes.
- Roll taffy into bite-sized pieces.
- Wrap individually in squares of wax paper.

Juicy Window Clings

- Pour bug juice powder into a bottle of school glue.
- Mix thoroughly using a thin, long utensil, like a chopstick.
- Use glue regularly to create art on canvas, paper, or plastic wrap.
- Once your creation is dry you can cling it to your window.

PRO-TIP:

When using more than one color, allow each color to dry first; otherwise the colors may run together.

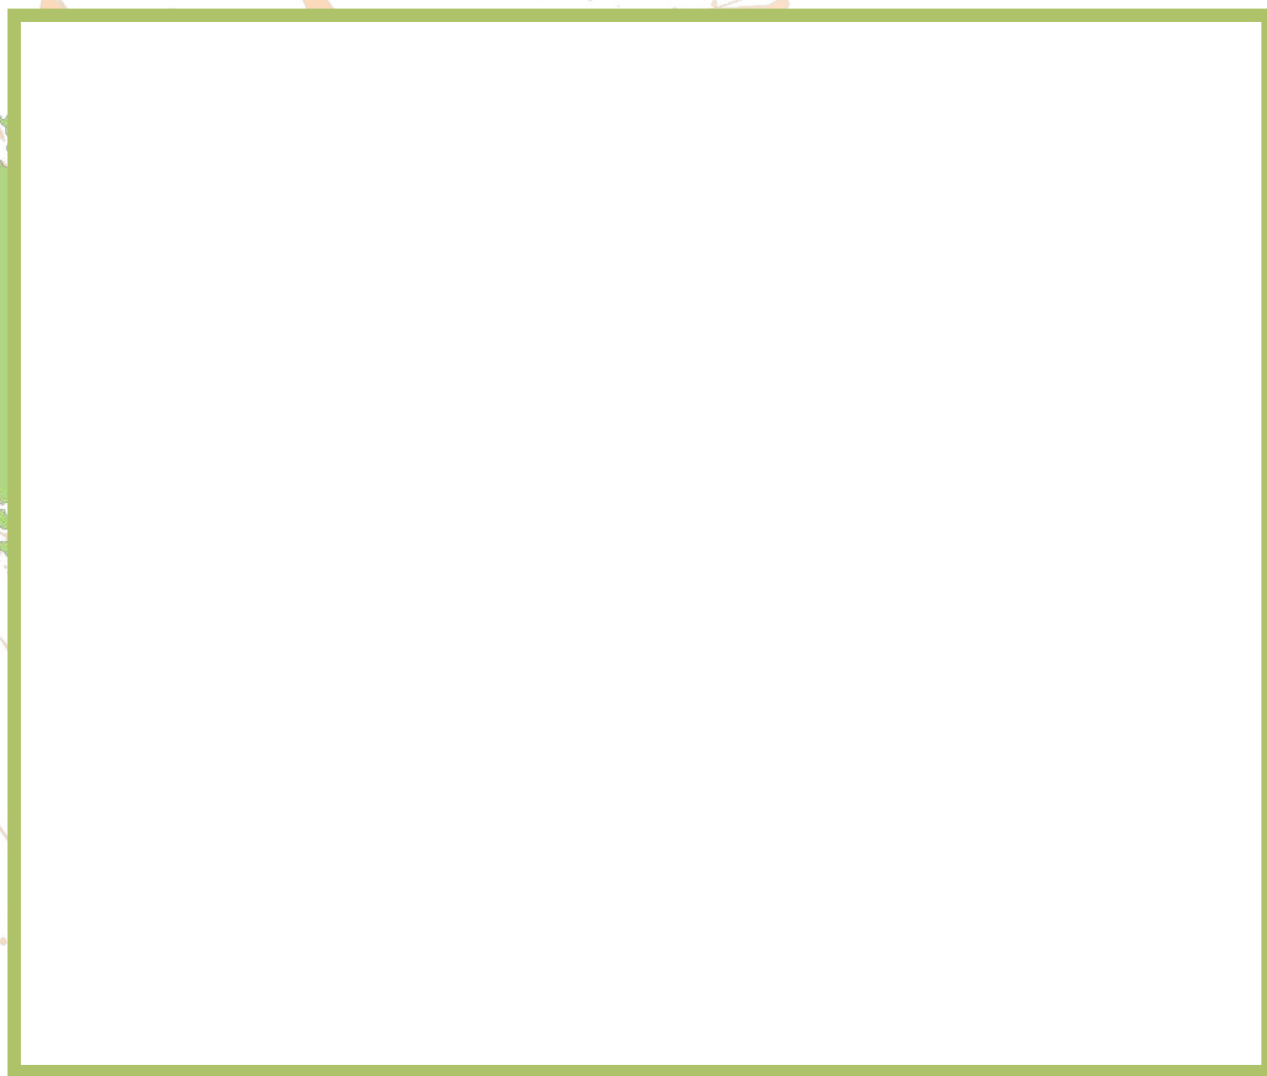

DECORATE YOUR OWN STICKER

Hey Campers!

We are looking for a new sticker design and we want your help. If you have a cool idea then please draw it below. Your design might be picked for our future sticker. Here is what you need to know:

- 1) Your sticker can be any shape. Oval, circle, square...you name it!
- 2) Please color the sticker the way you would like it.
- 3) Your sticker must have Camp Lincoln and/or Camp Lake Hubert somewhere on it.
- 4) Ideas must be submitted before June 1st by posting a picture of this page to Facebook/Instagram and tagging:
