

DÍA DE LOS MUERTOS & ALL SOULS DAY

Día de los Muertos, November 1st & 2nd, is a wonderful tradition where time is put aside to remember and celebrate the lives of our loved ones. It originated and is mostly observed in Mexico, but also in other places, especially by people of Mexican heritage elsewhere. All Souls Day, observed by Latin Catholics and other Christian denominations is celebrated on Nov 2nd. All Souls Day, while similar to Día de los Muertos, focuses more on prayer and remembrance of the departed, while Día de los Muertos focus on welcoming the deceased through gifts, symbols, and celebration.

Over Día del los Muertos, families visit the cemetery and erect an ofrenda in honor of a departed loved one. Items on the offrenda are symbolic. Traditions connected with the holiday include honoring the deceased using calaveras and aztec marigold flowers known as cempazúchitl, building home altars called ofrendas with the favorite foods and beverages of the departed, and visiting graves with these items as gifts for the deceased.
